The Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori

Dear Friends of Canterbury Cathedral,

TRUSTEES

The Very Rev. Dr. Robert A. Willis
Dean, Canterbury Cathedral

Canterbury Cathedral is an enduring, but not unchanging, destination for the faithful of many persuasions. It and the sacred ground it occupies have been a place of pilgrimage and worship for almost 1,700 years. Yet it also changes according to the needs of each generation.

The Rt. Rev. Peter James Lee
Interim Dean, Grace Cathedral
San Francisco, CA
Chair

Today those needs include keeping the ancient buildings repaired, a legacy of the past, while at the same time supporting its educational venues, especially the International Study Center, a legacy for the future. In that sense, Canterbury is a gift to us from the faithful of the past, and it is our gift in turn to the faithful of the future.

The Very Rev. Sam G. Candler

We are the bridge to make that happen, to make sure the gift will endure and will continue Canterbury's unique role in reaching out and across to Anglicans around the globe. The responsibility is ours to keep the gift going.

A Pilgrimage to Canterbury, a spiritual and cultural sojourn to claim our Anglican roots, is being planned for next summer, June 13-21, 2011. The itinerary includes visits to Chichester, Winchester, and Canterbury Cathedrals, the oldest parish and the oldest alms house in England, and much more. It will be led by the Rev. Canon Matthew Corkern.
